

Since 1 April 2010, the City does not deliver or keep writs anymore.

The bailiff is the person who issues the writ to the citizen. In case of absence, he puts the writ in the mailbox and a registered letter is sent the next day.

The address of the bailiff is on the letter. It is therefore possible to contact the bailiff or a higher authority such as the public prosecutor in Brussels, which keeps a complete file.